

Let's recreate the natural art with modern technology!

Ancient glass has miraculous beauty due to a phenomenon called silvering or iridescent effect, which is said to be attributed to the humidity and temperature of the soil in which glass stayed.

It's up to you what you want to try!
Challengers wanted!

With modern technology, the same thing can be created in a few hours!?

Or is it the mystery of the earth after all...

